Australia/New Zealand trip

"Go out and bring in"

We understand that your time is precious. Although you cannot visit our factory for the time being, please rest assured that our products and services will never be far away from you. We always believe that opportunities will always come.

In the future, we will definitely come to you with sincerity and strength to create a better future together. We look forward to meeting you in the near future, no matter where we are, we will go all out to provide you with the best support and cooperation.

Warm congratulations to Huasheng Industry for passing the BBSI factory inspection!

We are very honored to have passed the BSCI certification, which is not only an affirmation of our corporate reputation and image, but also our firm commitment to social responsibility.

Christmas stock reserve

Plan ahead for the Christmas season and win the future with inventory!

"Are you ready for the Christmas rush? Inventory management determines your Christmas revenue! Select high-quality products and stock them in advance to ensure that your store sells well during this holiday season."

Congratulations to the lab members +1

Accurate corrosion resistance test, salt spray test machine comprehensively evaluates the quality of your products

Congratulations to the new addition to the lab team! With the addition of new forces, I believe that future innovation and exploration will be even more exciting. Looking forward to creating more brilliant results with you!

The addition of new equipment enables us to more comprehensively evaluate the performance of our products, thereby continuously optimizing and improving product quality. We believe that only by passing the most stringent testing process can we provide customers with the most trustworthy products.

"Do you feel the warmth?"

In order to ensure that our products can maintain excellent quality in various environments, we have specially added a greenhouse test link for our products. The greenhouse simulates different temperature and humidity conditions, giving us insights into how the product will perform under various extreme conditions.

"In the name of love, deliver warmth"

In order to create a healthier and more comfortable working environment for our employees, we are proud to announce that our sanding area has been fully upgraded to a dust-free environment. We know that a clean and safe working environment not only improves work efficiency, but also represents our commitment to employee health.

Color Card Proofreading

Accurate colors define your brand image!

"Every shade is crucial. We provide professional color card proofreading services to ensure that your brand colors are accurately presented and the perfect visual effect for your products."

If you want to display a display stand on your desktop, look no further than our display racks!

Warm congratulations to Huasheng on appearing on CCTV

"Log on CCTV to show the strength of the factory"

We are very proud to announce that the company will soon be on CCTV to show our factory strength and technological innovation to a national audience. This is not only an affirmation of our many years of hard work, but also a high degree of recognition of our quality and service.
